Intermittent. These employees work an irregular and unpredictable schedule which is determined by the fluctuating demands of the work. Typically, these employees work fewer than 1,000 hours per year.

Permanent. These employees hold a position that requires a regular schedule of twenty-six consecutive bi-weekly pay periods, or any other regular schedule of comparable consecutive pay periods that is not limited to a specific season or duration.

Project Employees. These employees are hired in connection with a special project having a limited term funding source, such as a federal grant.

Seasonal. These employees work a certain regular season or period of each year performing some work or activity limited to that season or period of the year.

Temporary. These employees hold their positions for a limited period of time, which is fixed by the appointing authority for a period not to exceed six months.
