

State employee generosity benefits nearly 1,400 charities

Thanks to the generosity of State of Ohio employees, 1,398 charities will benefit from donations in excess of $2,886,551 through the 2014 State of Ohio Combined Charitable Campaign.

The Combined Charitable Campaign offers state employees the opportunity to donate to 1,731 charities through payroll deductions or one-time gifts.

“I want to express my appreciation for your participation in and support for the 2014 Combined Charitable Campaign,” said Robert Blair, director of the Ohio Department of Administrative Services and co-chair of the 2014 Combined Charitable Campaign. “I am proud to serve with colleagues who are generous and selfless in their giving.”

“Ohio Civil Service Employees Association (OCSEA) members have always been very generous in their support of the campaign,” said Ohio School for the Blind and Combined Charitable Campaign Co-chair Rocky Jolly on behalf of OCSEA President Christopher Mabe. “OCSEA members continue to show what big hearts they have by pledging to support the charities of their choice through the Combined Charitable Campaign.”
