

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

BROWN BAG LUNCH AND A MOVIE

WALNUT ROOM

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, NOON TO 1 P.M.

Stop by with your lunch and learn about the historic King-Lincoln District.

WOSU Presents Columbus Neighborhoods: King Lincoln District- At its height in the 1930s, hundreds of people filled its bustling streets. The nation's top musicians played its many theaters and clubs. African Americans of all walks of life lived and shopped there.

The documentary explores the area's rich and vibrant music heritage and includes features on Elijah Pierce, Aminah Robinson, Roman Johnson, and other artist. The program also explores the neighborhood's demise as the interstate separated it from the rest of the city and shows how the renovation of the Lincoln Theatre may be a sign of the community's rebirth.
