

Coverage

Employees receive a pharmacy identification card, which must be presented at the pharmacy when filling prescriptions. You must use your pharmacy identification card to receive prescriptions - you will not be able to purchase medications with your health plan ID card.