

Ohio Employee Assistance Program moves to Rhodes Tower

The Ohio Employee Assistance Program (OEAP) has moved. Their new address is:

Rhodes State Office Tower
27th Floor
30 E. Broad St.
Columbus, OH 43215

OEAP is now a part of the Ohio Department of Administrative Services' Office of Benefits Administration Services.

OEAP will remain a valuable resource to the State of Ohio workforce and will continue in "helping and supporting you to live well and serve well."

OEAP is an intake, information referral and support service for state employees and their family members. The program is designed to help employees, managers and agencies meet the many life challenges while remaining healthy, engaged and productive.
