

EMPLOYEE EXCHANGE PROGRAM

The Employee Exchange Program allows State of Ohio employees who are exempt from bargaining units to be temporarily assigned to work in a different organization within state government, other governmental entities, or private sector organizations for a variety of reasons to further the goals and objectives of the participating parties.

For more information that explains how this program works, please read Ohio Administrative Code 123:1-46-06, which is linked on the previous page. If you have any questions related to this program you may send an e-mail to the Office of Policy and Development at dashrd.hrpolicy@das.ohio.gov or call us at (614)752-5393.
