

Disability benefits may not be payable for the following:

- If you suffer a work-related injury.
- If you attempt suicide, or sustain a self-inflicted injury.
- Any illness or injury resulting from an act of war, declared or undeclared.
- Any illness or injury resulting from participation in a riot or insurrection.
- Drug addiction or alcoholism.
- Any illness or injury incurred during the act of committing a felony.
- During the time an employee is under investigation for possible disciplinary action by their agency.
- Once you are separated from state service.
- If you engage in any occupation for wage or profit.
- If you engage in an act of fraud or misrepresentation involving your disability claim.
- If you do not consult a licensed practitioner for necessary medical care.
- If you do not follow your prescribed treatment for your disabling condition.
- If you fail to notify the appointing authority of a change of address.
- If you are convicted of a felony.

For additional details on these specific situations, please refer to the DAS Disability Benefits Web page, Ohio Administrative Code 123:1-33-03 & 123:1-33-11 or your bargaining unit contract.