Woodstock at 50 celebrates the highlights and impact of the historic festival that took place over one rainy three-day weekend in August, 1969. Rare artifacts from the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame's collection will celebrate everything from the ingenuity of those who mounted the festival to the performers who played it.

Part of the Machine: Rock & Pinball is an interactive exhibit showcasing rock-themed, playable pinball machines combined with historic merchandise and artifacts to explore the artistic portrayal of artists and bands.
