

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Are you working toward certification for the first time or seeking to maintain Project Management credentials?

Learning on Demand courses can help you meet your certification requirements.

Learning on Demand courses are Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK™), Fifth Edition Guide aligned and offers the contact hours needed for certification as well as Professional Development Units (PDUs) necessary to maintain certification.

Once enrolled in the program, mentoring is available 365/24/7 for certification courses, via e-mail and moderated chat-rooms. Learners can get further assistance and guidance with selected exam preparation.
