

LEARN & LEAD

Are You Planting the Seeds of Success?

Developing leaders and delivering results are key components to growth at the State of Ohio. Targeted online learning solutions are aligned to State competencies so that you can broaden your skills and reach your professional goals.

Learning on Demand resources provide an extensive range of learning content including online books, book summaries, interactive courseware, hands-on simulations, and a multitude of other resources.

A new collection in Learning on Demand called Leadership Development is now available.

Information on the Leadership Development collection and other valuable resources are available to exempt and IT professionals via Learning on Demand.
