

Do you Google everything?

In today's world, we've become accustomed to finding exactly what we need, when we need it. Search engines like Google and YouTube have become our go-to when we want to know something, or figure out how to do something.

As a State employee, you have that same convenience for all your eLearning needs, including Learning on Demand.

The goal is to make it as easy as possible for you to find knowledge that is relevant to you and help in your day to day work.

You can TRUST your search results

It can be difficult to find trusted sources when posting a question to the web. You can trust the answers you will find on Learning on Demand! Use the Search and Learn tool as you would any Internet search engine to find your answers quickly.

To help in your role, use Learning on Demand to browse a range of content on topics such as Customer Focus, Project Management, Lean Ohio Green Belt and more ... all available on demand when and how you need it. Due the State's effort to practice social distancing, Learning on Demand is now temporarily available to all State of Ohio employees.

You can choose from books, videos, articles, audio books, assessments, and more.
