

A New Year, A New You

A New Year's resolution should be about what you gain, not what you lose. Each year, many people resolve to eliminate things in their lives such as old behaviors and habits. Why not make this year about learning something instead? With Learning on Demand, you can explore, learn, and develop new skills or refresh old skills.

To get the most out of the available resources, explore professional certifications such as Project Management (PM), Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA™), and CompTIA to name a few.

These resources can help you learn to increase effectiveness at work while exercising more control over day-to-day activities and improving your ability to meet personal career goals.

Explore the following learning resources to gain the insights and skills you need to enhance your professional development:

Developing a Plan to Further Your Career	Course	28 Minutes
