November 2018

The first phase in the Performance Management and Development Cycle is Plan. During this phase, a collaborative effort between the supervisor and employee occurs which involves reviewing the job description, identifying critical performance objectives, developing goals, setting expectations, explaining how an employee can meet and exceed standards, and discussing training objectives to help the employee develop competencies or identify career development objectives.

The resources below are available through Learning on Demand to assist you in exploring more on the topic of Performance Management and Development.
