

Performance Management and Development Spotlight for Supervisors

JUNE 2021

The third and final phase of the Performance Management and Development Cycle is Evaluate.

During this end-of-cycle phase, supervisors are expected to gather specific examples that support the final evaluation; assess overall performance observed throughout the entire evaluation period; refer to notes collected on employees' performance; and present the overall evaluation to each employee during a formal one-on-one meeting.

Within ePerformance, supervisors can begin the evaluation process by COMPLETING the Establish Evaluation Criteria step, if not done already.

From there, ratings and comments can be applied within the Complete Manager Evaluation step, and then the evaluation must be SUBMITTED FOR APPROVAL. Once the document has routed through the necessary approvals (typically the Manager Reviewer and HR), supervisors will Share the Evaluation with the Employee, allowing the employee to view ALL ratings and comments provided in the Complete Manager Evaluation Step. \(If you DID NOT create this document within the new 9.2 software, please see below) ** As always, it is encouraged to meet with your Employee to discuss the evaluation in its entirety. Once done, the Employee need only to Acknowledge the evaluation rendering it Complete within the system.

NOTE: For documents created within 9.1: After a formal evaluation meeting has been conducted, supervisors will click Mark Review Held, within the same step, and then wait for the Employee to Acknowledge the document. Finally, supervisors can mark the document COMPLETE.

Tips and Tricks

- Within an evaluation there are multiple summary sections (e.g., Competency and Goals & Performance Expectations) as well as an overall rating section (e.g., Overall Performance Ratings Summary). These sections have more ratings to choose from, allowing supervisors more flexibility in their decision. If each competency and/or goal has the same rating applied (e.g. Meets Expectations), your Summary Section should reflect that same rating. If you have differing ratings for competencies and/or goals in an evaluation, make sure that your Summary rating is justified, based on the rating applied, with detailed and specific comments and supporting documentation.
- If you would like to attach supporting documentation (e.g. worksheets, emails, recognition, notes), you can only do so BEFORE Submitting for Approval. There are two options for attachment visibility: MGR ONLY, in which ONLY the approval chain will see the attachments; or MGR and EMPL in which the employee can see the attachments after the document has been made Available for Review.
