AT&T VPN SERVICE
PRICING SCHEDULE/SERVICE ATTACHMENT

APPENDIX A

The following Service Description is included for information only, and are stabilized as of the Effective Date of the Pricing Schedule (Service Attachment).

AT&T VPN Service (AT&T VPN) enables Subscribing Entity to build an application-aware, network-based Multi-Protocol Label Switching (MPLS) virtual private network (VPN) to link locations and efficiently transmit applications such as voice, data, and video over a single connection.

Service Components

The primary Service Components are MPLS Ports. An MPLS Port provides the connection between a supported access arrangement and the AT&T Network. The MPLS Port speed is the maximum rate for transmission of data through the MPLS Port. AT&T MPLS Ports are available in a variety of protocols, and the availability of specific port speeds will vary by protocol. Available MPLS Port speeds range from 56k through 100 Gbps. Changing the type/protocol of an MPLS Port at a Subscribing Entity Site may require the addition of a new MPLS Port and access line or access channel and disconnect of the existing MPLS Port and access line or access channel. Applicable charges will apply. A change order that increases the speed of an installed MPLS Port in the US does not require a disconnect and reconnect of the port or payment of the applicable disconnect/reconnect charges; provided, however, that disconnect and reconnect of the port is required and disconnect/reconnect charges apply (i) if a change to the access speed is required, or (ii) if the order is to increase the speed for MPLS ATM Port from a sub-rate to a full rate speed.

Available MPLS Port speeds by MPLS Port type are listed in the Schedule of Charges.
